Visit the Capital of the ancient two Sicily's rein and its vibrant historical centre.
 Visit the famous chapel of Sansevero, the most important evidence of Neapolitan art of the '700, which holds the famous Veiled Christ statue.
 Discover San Gennaro Cathedral, a precious example of Neapolitan Gothic art and Baroque architecture.

Description Summary

Enjoy a walking tour in Napoli discovering the ancient historical centre along "Spaccanapoli", you will discover all the stories, curiosities and anecdotes of the Neapolitan tradition and folklore.

Full Description

Meet your local guide for the day and board on the coach to depart to Naples, passing the beautiful towns and enjoy the enchanting view of the coast along the Amalfi Drive. Starting point of the walking tour of the city is Piazza del Gesù Nuovo, one of the most famous squares in the historic centre. The name of the square comes from the Chiesa del Gesù Nuovo an historic Baroque Church full of history and legends; in the middle of the square the huge obelisk dedicated to the Immacolata Concezione. Along via San Biagio, best known as "Spaccanapoli", you will be guided to discover the more fascinating and relevant sites of this Decumano like the Chiesa di Santa Chiara and the spectacular square of San Domenico Maggiore. Next is the Cappella Sansevero that hosts the statue of the Veiled Christ one of the most gorgeous sculpture in the world. Besides this masterpiece realized by Giuseppe Sanmartino in 1753, the chapel contains works of Rococo art by some of the leading Italian artists of the 18th century and the astonishing 'anatomical machines'. Back on Via San Biagio dei Librai, after few steps, we will stop in Piazzetta Nilo, the name is due to the Statue of the God Nile, which dates back to the 2nd - 3rd century B.C. At that time many Egyptians from Alexandria of Egypt settled in the area and wanted to erect a statue that recalled the prosperity and wealth of the Nile River. The tour will continue to piazza San Gaetano where once used to take place the old Agora of Greek Naples. Last step of the tour is the Napoli Dome dedicated to San Gennaro and Santa Maria Assunta. The Church is a relevant Neapolitan Gothic and Baroque art. The main attraction of the interior is the Royal Chapel of the Treasure of San Gennaro. The church houses a vial of the blood of San Genanro, which is brought out three times a year, when the dried blood usually liquefies. According to the legend if the blood fails to liquefy, a disaster will befall Naples. Return to the Amalfi Coast in the afternoon.
